| Instructor of Record (the person to send your documents to and who will post your grade) | Cheryl Baker, EdDcbaker@plymouth.edu |
| Registration Details | Complete registration form and submit requirements for credit; send to the address on the registration form. |
| Requirements for Credit | • Verification of book study completion◦ Local book discussion participation◦ Regional book discussion and/or online book forum participation• Select an assessment you will use with students and tier it - one version more complex, one version less complex. Write up the justification for how you tiered the assessment, referencing the principles and techniques described in Chapter 5.• Provide a 3-5 page reflection paper discussing:• your personal grading philosophy.• how this book study helped you define your professional beliefs and core values around mastery, assessment and grading.• what changes in your classroom practice will ensure that grades more accurately reflect what students know and are able to do in response to the curricular goals. |

All academic submissions should be in APA format. Information regarding APA format may be obtained by visiting Lamson Learning Commons online (library.plymouth.edu/style-guides/apa)

Grading is determined by participation in the study as well as the quality of the reflection paper. The paper should relate directly to your learning experience from implementation of the ideas in the book within your work environment.
